

Miss Kaytlin Alcorn
Parkview School
English Language Arts / Reading – 8th grade

Welcome! Welcome to another great school year. My name is Kaytlin Alcorn. I am looking forward to being your teacher this year! In this class, you will study English Language Arts and Reading. This year is different from what we typically expect, but you will still use your skills to accomplish great things.

Contact Info:

Email: kalcorn@cc76.k12.il.us

Phone: (309) 698 – 3610 – School

Website: <https://kaytlinalcorn.weebly.com/>

Office Hours:

E – Learning: 1:00-2:50 pm (everyday)

Wednesday E-Learning: Normal class time for check in, and then scheduled office hours for one on one help.

Classroom Expectations – In Class and Online

Assignment Expectations

- Assignments will most likely be given in an online format
 - Make sure to read all questions or instructions carefully!
 - Assignments can be given as a hard copy to A/B cohorts upon request.
- Assignments are to be done to the best of your ability (everyone makes mistakes, even me)
- Assignments are to be completed by you, no one else.
 - If you need help ASK!
- Assignments will be given due dates

Late Work Expectations

- Contact home will be made for students with an extreme amount of late work
- Assignments can still be turned in, but the student needs to ask for help if they are confused!
- Any assignments outside of a quarter may not be turned in. (ex: if we are in Quarter 2, assignments from Quarter 1 may not be turned in)

Make-up Work Expectations

- If you miss in class days of instruction
 - A/B Cohorts: Will check weekly folder hanging by the door for a missing assignment sheet that details what they missed
 - Online learners will be contacted by Miss Alcorn about missing work
- If you are struggling make sure you contact me by email or calling the school so I can help.
- Students have 2 days for one day that they missed to make up the missing assignment. Check the student handbook regarding make-up work.

In Class Expectations

- No electronic devices are to be out during class time, unless approved by the principal and myself.
- There is to be respect for all individuals and all materials used for the class.
- Follow the Student Handbook
- Masks must be worn during class

You are valuable. You are significant. You are special. Welcome!